

Jane Bellward Award: Nomination form

This award has been created by Lavenham Parish Council in recognition of the many years' service as Parish Clerk by Jane Bellward who retired from the role in 2023.

The aim of the award is to give recognition to the younger members of this Parish who voluntarily provide a service to the community.

A young person of school age (under the age of 18 at 01/03/2024) or a group or club for young persons can be nominated. This could be as part of an organised scheme or simply being a good neighbour-.

The awarding panel will decide upon the allocation of awards.

One nomination per form.

Information provided will be treated with the strictest confidence and disposed of appropriately after awards have been made.
